which is the basis of the Bitters now offered to the public. That honor belongs to the native in-habitants of Central America, to whom its virtues Mill, Cross-Cut and Hand SAWS; have been known for more than two hundred years. Armed with it, the Indian bids defiance to the most deadly malaria, and handles without fear the most venomous screents. It is a belief with them that while there is breath left in the body the Cedron is potent to cure, no matter what the disase may be. While Dr. Bull is not prepared to endorse this extravagant pretension, he is nevertheless satisfied rom a thorough examination of the evidence relang to its virtues, that as a remedy and preventive rom all diseases arising from exposure, either to hanges of weather and climate, or to the miss ratic influence, it stands BLISTER STEEL
